

VIET TAN

PRESENTS

A SPECIAL ONE DAY SEMINAR

DIGITAL ACTIVISM

A TOOL FOR SOCIAL CHANGE IN VIETNAM
8.18.2012 | WASHINGTON, DC

SEMINAR DESCRIPTON: Using the Internet and social media, activists in Tunisia, Egypt and around the world are challenging authorities and realizing social change. In Vietnam, a blogger movement is sparking public debate and mobilizing civic action.

How can we achieve social justice and democratic change in Vietnam with the tools of the digital age? This seminar will provide in-depth training on digital activism and examine how a nonviolent struggle for democracy CAN and WILL succeed in Vietnam. Learn about the mission of Viet Tan and how dedicated Vietnamese youths around the world can become effective democracy activists.

REGISTRATION: Register online at viettan.org/seminar. Registration will be closed on Wednesday, August 15, 11:59pm EST.

COST: Free

LOCATION: Washington, DC (specific address TBA)

ABOUT VIET TAN: The mission of Viet Tan is to overcome dictatorship, build the foundation for a sustainable democracy, and demand justice and human rights for the Vietnamese people through a nonviolent struggle based on civic participation. Please send inquiries to seminar@viettan.org.
